

Itinerary:

After leaving the Port of Dover we will take a picturesque route through the North Downs valley to Canterbury passing through some beautiful places on the way with stunning views, charming villages and rolling hills covered in vineyards.

After arriving in Canterbury, we will go on a guided walk through the medieval streets of the city. You will hear fascinating stories about the history and current life of the city and will have plenty of opportunities to see and learn about some very charming buildings.

Upon completion of the tour, you will have an opportunity to visit Canterbury Cathedral, stop off for a cup of tea with scones or have a look at the shops in the centre.

After our visit to Canterbury, we will make our way back to Dover. We will take another scenic route allowing you to soak up more of the Kentish countryside and quaint villages. We may stop off for photos and further exploration if you so wish.
